This is our 13th edition of Good News Sunday Fairfield. We want to continue bringing you good and heartwarming stories in these difficult times.

A 10-year-old boy and a family friend decided to do a very nice thing. They cleaned the cars of 60 health care workers outside of a New Jersey hospital after a winter storm. Christian wanted to help the health care workers the next time it snowed. He thought they weren't doing enough to help the health care workers and he thought why not help them with cleaning their cars? They said that they made it a game where when they saw someone going to a car they would run and make sure the car was ready. How can we help our health care workers?

A Chick-fil-A employee named Taniguchi didn't have a car and had to bike a long distance to get to work. The Chick-fil-A Christmas party was coming up and there were rumors that a car was being raffled away. And sure enough when Taniguchi and the rest of her great co-worker showed up there was a car being raffled. Bridges (Taniguchi's best friend) and the rest of the workers from their location agreed that if one of them won the car they would give it to Taniguchi. Bridget won the car! When their boss called her name she and Taniguchi burst into tears. "Once my name was called by one of the bosses, Taniguchi and I looked at each other, this is when she started to cry." Bridges recalled. Being selfless and helping a co-worker or classmate is a great way to make an impact.

Xavier and Cincinnati fans have been trying to top each other in a certain area. Tips! It all started after a café named Zip's Café posted a picture of a Xavier fan receipt that had a tip of $1,000 and a card saying "Please share this tip with all of your employees as they work so hard and are dealing with COVID. Go Xavier!" This post inspired two Cincinnati fans to tip $1,001. This has become to be known as the "Crosstown Tip-off Challenge" or "Crosstown Tip Wars". According to ABC news the total amount is $34,252.06 and the highest tip is $2,500. Isn't this a great way to help our front-line workers. How about if we start something like this in Fairfield?

Happy Valentine's day! Pick a random person for a sweet surprise today.

Presidents Day

Tomorrow will be president's day! We will celebrate all the great past presidents. Below will be some fun facts about our past presidents and president day.

- President's day was a national holiday in 1879
- Every year we celebrate President's day on every third Monday in February and we have a three-day weekend
- Presidents day was originally celebrating George Washington
- We had 46 presidents so far

Below are some facts about some of past presidents that you might not have heard of.

George Washington – 1st president

George Washington had lost all his teeth so he used animals' teeth not wooden teeth.

James Monroe – 5th president

April, 28, 1758 James Monroe was born. He was the last founding father to serve as president of America. He got married to Elizabeth Kortright and had five children he died in Jul 04, 1831.

James K. Polk – 11th president

Nov 2, 1795 James K. Polk was born. He got married to Sarah Childress Polk in January 1, 1824. Nobody believed he could be president. So it was a big surprise when he won. He died in Jun 15, 1849.

Millard Fillmore – 13th president

Millard Fillmore was born in Jan 07, 1800 he was the 13th president and he did not have a Vice President. He had one daughter and one son.

James Buchanan – 15th president

James Buchanan was born in Apr 23, 1791, he fought in the war of 1812 and died Jun 01, 1868.

Rutherford B. Hayes – 19th president

Rutherford B. Hayes was born in 1822 and was very smart. He was the 19th president and he started the first White House Easter Egg Roll letting children from all states roll eggs he died in Jan 17, 1893.

Chester A. Arthur – 21st president

Chester A. Arthur was born on October 5, 1829. He was part of an elite fishing club that went to Canada to fish and was very good at it. He also requested standard time and that is still followed today. He was a sharp dresser. He died on November 18, 1886.

That is only some of our presidents but there are many more that made a difference that are not as well known. Who is your favorite President?

Quote of the week.

"It is far better to be alone, than to be in bad company."

- George Washington

"Right reason is stronger than force."

- James A. Garfield
